SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

COUNT ONE: (18 U.S.C. § 1962(d) – Conspiracy to Conduct the Affairs of an Enterprise
Through a Pattern of Racketeering Activity)

The Racketeering Enterprise

1. The Chee Kung Tong, also known as “Gee Kung Tong,” also known as “Supreme Lodge Chinese Freemasons of the World,” also known as the “CKT” (hereafter “CKT”), was a predominantly Chinese American association based in Chinatown, in the City and County of San Francisco, whose members operated in the City and County of San Francisco and elsewhere, and whose activities affected other parts of the United States. The members of CKT primarily conducted their activities in the Bay Area, centered in the cities of San Francisco and Oakland. CKT existed since at least the late 1800s. The roots of the CKT were the Hung Mun societies in China, which were formed largely to overthrow the Qing Dynasty in China. Members of the Hung Mun groups formed new organizations in America as their members migrated from China, including CKT. CKT was formed primarily for civic purposes to benefit the communities of Chinese immigrants and Chinese Americans and to protect them from abuse by other Americans, as well as to continue supporting overthrow of the Qing Dynasty from afar. Over the years, CKT developed both positive legal community functions and activities and criminal functions and activities. Some members of CKT were strictly involved in legal functions and activities of CKT. Other members were also involved in illegal activities. The CKT had chapters in many different North American cities so that there were chapters around the country and in other countries. The Hop Sing Tong in San Francisco’s Chinatown, also known as “HST” (hereafter “HST”) similarly formed as a fraternal organization dedicated to the community of Chinese immigrants and Chinese Americans. The HST also maintained chapters in other North American cities. Over the years, the HST also developed both positive legal community functions and activities and criminal functions and activities. The CKT acted as an “umbrella” organization in relation to the HST such that the Dragonhead of the CKT had influence over the leadership and activities of the HST.

2. Some members of CKT received titles and corresponding Triad numbers. The Triads were international criminal organizations based in China. Examples include the “Dragonhead” or

1 "General" with a corresponding number of "489"; "red pole" or "red stick," or "enforcer" or "soldier"
2 with a corresponding number of "426"; "white paper fan," or "organizer," with a corresponding number
3 of "415"; and ordinary or normal members with a corresponding number of "49." Members of the CKT
4 with corresponding Triad numbers were familiar with Triad handshakes and hand signs used to identify 5 other individuals with Triad status.

6 3. Members of CKT were expected to protect the name, reputation, and status of the group
7 and its individual members from harm, insult, or disrespect by members of rival groups and other
8 persons. CKT members required that all individuals show respect and deference to the group, its 9 membership and associates. To protect the group and to enhance its reputation, CKT members were 10 expected to use any means necessary to force respect from those who showed disrespect, including acts 11 of intimidation and violence.

12 4. Members of CKT engaged in criminal activity, including narcotics distribution, assault,
13 robbery, extortion, collection of unlawful debt, murder for hire, money laundering, trafficking in stolen
14 goods, illegal firearms possession, and obstruction of justice. CKT members committed and threatened 15 to commit acts of violence to maintain and enhance membership and discipline within the enterprise, 16 including violence against rival group members, those perceived to be rival group members, rivals in 17 general, those who disrespected or committed violence against CKT members, as well as CKT members 18 and associates who violated the rules of the enterprise.

19 5. There were leaders of CKT. The Dragonhead of CKT was feared and respected, and the 20 directions from the Dragonhead were followed by other members. There was a President, Vice 21 Presidents, Directors, Supervisors, Secretaries, officers of Finance, Society Head, Consultants, and other
22 positions. There were leaders or "bosses," sometimes referred to as "Dai Lo," literally referring to "big 23 brother" but signifying a boss within CKT. Below the leaders were "soldiers," those members who have 24 been prepared and known to commit violence on behalf of the group and to protect each other. There
25 were also CKT members who dealt narcotics or engaged in other forms of criminal activity. There were 26 also associates of CKT who were not members, but who engaged with the members in conducting 27 certain illegal activities. There were also leaders and officers of the HST. The Dragonhead of the CKT, 28

1 as an umbrella organization to the HST, held a position of influence in the selection of leaders for the

11 hh. On or about May 17, 2013, YEE and JACKSON met with UCE 4180, and others at a
12 restaurant in San Francisco. UCE 4180 reiterated the request that YEE contact State Senator 1. YEE
13 stated that he was not interested in making money, but wanted his friends to benefit from his work.
14 During the meeting, UCE 4180 gave YEE an envelope containing $5,000 cash in connection with 15 YEE's assistance in furthering UCE 4180's interest in medical marijuana legislation. During the same
16 meeting, JACKSON told YEE that UCE 4180 knew the owner of an NFL team (hereafter "NFL Team
17 A") and UCE 4180 confirmed this fact. YEE then told UCE 4180 about California Assembly Bill No.
18 1309 (hereafter "AB-1309"), entitled "Workers' Compensation: Professional Athletes," introduced in 19 the California legislature to limit the ability of professional athletes employed by non-California teams
20 to file workers' compensation claims in California. YEE explained that owners of professional football
21 teams had an interest in AB 1309, it was in the financial interests of the owner of NFL Team A for AB
22 1309 to pass, and YEE held a key position on the Senate Committee that would be considering AB 1309
23 because YEE controlled two votes on the Committee. YEE also stated that the players on professional 24 football teams opposed AB 1309. YEE told UCE 4180 that UCE 4180 should convey this information
25 to the owner of NFL Team A and the owner of NFL Team A should contact YEE with an offer to help
26 YEE. When UCE 4180 asked how much YEE's vote would cost, YEE responded, "Oh no ... we gotta
27
28

1 drag it out, man. We gotta juice this thing.” YEE and JACKSON said they planned to talk to both the 2 owners of, and the players on, another professional sports team.

3 ii. On or about May 20, 2013, YEE and JACKSON spoke with UCE-4180 on the telephone
4 and YEE provided UCE 4180 with an update on the status of two bills pertaining to medical marijuana
5 that were pending in the state legislature.

6 jj. On or about June 20, 2013, in Sacramento, California, YEE introduced UCE 4180 to 7 State Senator 1 at a meeting also attended by JACKSON. YEE explained UCE 4180’s interest in certain 8 provisions of statewide medical marijuana legislation and expressed support for the issue of medical 9 marijuana.

10 kk. On or about June 22, 2013, YEE and JACKSON met with UCE 4180 in a hotel room in 11 San Francisco. UCE 4180 delivered an envelope containing $11,000 cash and said that it was for the 12 meeting with State Senator 1. YEE discussed his upcoming vote on AB 1309 and represented that he 13 controlled two votes on the Senate Labor and Industrial Relations Committee and that his vote was 14 critical. When the subject of payment of money by the owner of NFL Team A came up, YEE directed
15 UCE 4180 to discuss that subject with JACKSON. Before leaving the room, YEE prompted JACKSON
16 to pick up the envelope and take it with them.

17 ll. On or about June 22, 2013, JACKSON told UCE 4180 that YEE was going “to be 18 helpful” to the owner of NFL Team A, but wanted more money. When UCE 4180 conveyed an offer
19 from the owner of NFL Team A to pay YEE $60,000 for YEE’s favorable vote on AB 1309, JACKSON
20 told UCE 4180 that he would talk with YEE, but added, “I guarantee it is going to be fine.” After 21 learning the amount of money NFL Team A was purportedly willing to pay, JACKSON immediately
22 contacted YEE by telephone and several hours later, JACKSON sent a text message to UCE 4180
23 stating, “Hey [UCE 4180], where [sic] all good on our end ... kj.” UCE 4180 did not pay any money to 24 JACKSON or YEE.

25 mm. On or about July 4, 2013, YEE and JACKSON spoke by telephone and YEE expressed 26 his expectation that UCE 4599 would provide more money to the Secretary of State campaign.

27 nn. On or about July 10, 2013, the California Senate Labor and Industrial Relations
28

1 Committee held a vote on AB 1309. YEE voted in favor of the bill's passage.

2 oo. On or about July 11, 2013, JACKSON received a $1,800 check made payable to "Leland
3 Yee Secretary of State" from UCE 4599.

4 pp. On or about July 15, 2013, YEE complained to JACKSON about the small amount of 5 money received from UCE 4180 "for all we've done," and mentioned having set up the meeting for 6 UCE 4180 with State Senator 1.

7 qq. On or about August 26, 2013, YEE introduced UCE 4180 to another State Senator, 8 hereafter referred to as State Senator 2, whom YEE represented as having influence over medical 9 marijuana legislation. JACKSON was also present for the meeting. During the meeting, YEE
10 advocated for the provisions UCE 4180 wanted in the legislation.

11 rr. On or about September 11, 2013, YEE voted in favor of SB-309.

12 ss. On or about September 17, 2013, JACKSON and UCE 4180 met YEE at a restaurant in 13 San Francisco. UCE 4180 told YEE he was paying for the meetings and handed an envelope containing 14 $10,000 cash to JACKSON.

15 tt. On or about March 4, 2014, JACKSON discussed YEE and Wilson Lim providing 16 weapons for sale and importation to the United States with UCE 4599.

17 uu. On or about March 5, 2014, YEE and JACKSON met with UCE 4599 and discussed
18 defendant Wilson Lim as a source to sell weapons for importation to the United States.

20 to discuss purchasing weapons from the Philippines to import into the United States.

7 INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

8 At all times relevant to this indictment:

9 1. Defendant LELAND YEE (hereafter “YEE”) was an elected California State Senator
 10 for the Eighth Senate District, which included San Mateo County and part of San Francisco County.

11 2. In November 2012, YEE publicly announced his intention to run for the position of 12 Secretary of State of California in the election to be held in November 2014.

13 3. Defendant KEITH JACKSON (hereafter “JACKSON”) was the owner and managing
 14 partner of Jackson Consultancy, a consulting company located in San Francisco, California. JACKSON
 15 was a fund-raiser for YEE’s California Secretary of State campaign.

16 4. California Senate Bill No. 309 (hereafter “SB-309”), entitled “State Athletic Commission,”
 17 was introduced in the California legislature on February 15, 2013. SB-309 would extend the existence
 18 and operation of the California State Athletic Commission (hereafter “CSAC”) until 2016. The CSAC
 19 exercised licensing, regulatory, and disciplinary functions in connection with the operation of certain
 20 sports in California, including boxing, kickboxing, mixed martial arts, and Ultimate Fight Championship
 21 events. Without the extension provided for in SB-309, the CSAC would become inoperative on January 22 1, 2014.

23 5. YEE was a member of the California Senate Business, Professions, and Economic 24 Development Committee, which voted on SB-309 on April 29, 2013.

25 THE CONSPIRACY CHARGE

26 6. Beginning on a date unknown to the Grand Jury, but no later than March 2013, and 27 continuing through on or about December 2013, in the Northern District of California and elsewhere, the 28

1 defendants,

2 LELAND YEE, and
3 KEITH JACKSON,

4 did knowingly and intentionally conspire with each other and with others, both known and unknown to 5 the Grand Jury, to obstruct, delay, and affect in any way and degree commerce and the movement of 6 articles and commodities in commerce, by extortion, as those terms are defined in Title 18, United States
7 Code, Section 1951; that is, to obtain property not due LELAND YEE or his office and to which
8 LELAND YEE was not entitled, from individuals and entities involved with the CSAC and sports
9 regulated by the CSAC with their consent, under color of official right.

10 MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

11 7. The manner and means by which LELAND YEE and KEITH JACKSON would and 12 did carry out the conspiracy to obtain property under color of official right included, but were not 13 limited to, the following:

14 8. During a telephone conversation between YEE and JACKSON on March 2, 2013,
15 YEE explained the CSAC and SB-309 to JACKSON and told JACKSON that YEE was on the Senate
16 Committee that would be voting on whether to keep the CSAC or "just trash it." YEE told JACKSON
17 that he spoke to an individual (hereafter "Individual A") who had an interest in extending the existence
18 of the CSAC and "did a number" on that person. YEE said that he told Individual A that YEE intended
19 to shut down the CSAC, but Individual A should hire JACKSON to lobby YEE to vote to extend the 20 CSAC. JACKSON subsequently spoke to Individual A, who said he was fearful that YEE was going to 21 vote against extending the life of the CSAC. JACKSON told Individual A that he was willing to help, 22 but would have to be paid.

23 9. In a follow-up telephone conversation between YEE and JACKSON on March 3, 2013,
24 YEE instructed JACKSON to tell Individual A that convincing YEE to vote in favor of the CSAC
25 extension was going to be a "heavy lift" and JACKSON could not be expected to do the work of 26 lobbying YEE for free.

27 10. In furtherance of the conspiracy, on March 6, 2013, JACKSON met with Individual A and 28 an individual (hereafter referred to as "Individual B") who had an interest in extending the term of the

1 CSAC. Individual B was concerned about whether SB-309 was going to pass and knew that YEE had 2 influence over that decision. During the meeting, Individual B learned that JACKSON was a close
3 associate of YEE and that YEE was running for Secretary of State.

4 11. From this point on and during the course of the conspiracy, YEE and JACKSON had 5 numerous discussions about Individual B and their plan for YEE and JACKSON to lead Individual B to 6 believe that YEE was inclined to vote against extending the CSAC; for JACKSON to represent to 7 Individual B that JACKSON would lobby YEE on behalf of Individual B and the CSAC to vote in favor
8 of extending the CSAC; and for JACKSON to solicit Individual B for donations to, and assistance in 9 raising donations for, YEE's Secretary of State campaign in exchange for YEE's support of the CSAC.
10 On several occasions, YEE instructed JACKSON on what to say to Individual B in order to convince 11 Individual B that YEE was inclined to vote against SB-309, that JACKSON could potentially influence
12 YEE to
13 change his position, and that Individual B should assist YEE in raising money for YEE's Secretary of 14 State campaign.

15 12. During the course of the conspiracy, and in furtherance of the conspiracy, JACKSON had 16 numerous conversations with Individual B in which JACKSON represented that he had influence over 17 YEE and was prepared to lobby YEE on behalf of Individual B in order to convince YEE to support the 18 CSAC. As the conversations continued, JACKSON represented to Individual B that he was having 19 success in persuading YEE to change his position on extending the CSAC. As part of these 20 conversations, JACKSON asked Individual B to contribute money to YEE's Secretary of State 21 campaign; facilitate contacts with sports promoters who had an interest in the continued existence of the 22 CSAC; convince the sports promoters to contribute to and raise money for YEE's Secretary of State
23 campaign; and facilitate contact with an individual who had purported influence in the California
24 Democratic party and could assist in YEE's Secretary of State campaign.

25 13. On April 29, 2013, the Senate Business, Professions, and Economic Development Committee
26 held a hearing and vote on SB-309. YEE voted in favor of SB-309 and extending the term of the CSAC.
27 The full vote by the Senate on SB-309 did not take place until September 2013. On September 11, 28

1 2013, YEE voted in favor of SB-309.

2 14. During the time from April 29, 2013 and the final vote on SB-309 in the Senate, and in 3 furtherance of the conspiracy, JACKSON sought the assistance of another individual who had an 4 interest in extending the term of the CSAC in raising money for YEE's Secretary of State campaign.

5 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1951(a).

7 COUNT 214: (18 U.S.C. § 1951(a) – Conspiracy to Obtain Property Under Color Of Official Right)

8 INTRODUCTORY ALLEGATIONS

9 At all times relevant to this indictment:

10 1. Defendant LELAND YEE (hereafter "YEE") was an elected California State Senator
11 for the Eighth Senate District, which included San Mateo County and part of San Francisco County.

12 2. In November 2012, YEE publicly announced his intention to run for the position of 13 Secretary of State of California in the election to be held in November 2014.

14 3. Defendant KEITH JACKSON (hereafter "JACKSON") was the owner and managing
15 partner of Jackson Consultancy, a consulting company located in San Francisco, California. JACKSON
16 was a fund-raiser for YEE's California Secretary of State campaign.

17 4. UCE-4180 was an undercover agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation (hereafter 18 "FBI") who represented himself to defendants YEE and JACKSON, and others, as a businessman 19 involved in the medical marijuana business in Arizona. UCE-4180 represented that he was seeking to 20 expand his business to California and was particularly interested in statewide medical marijuana
21 legislation in California that would include provisions favorable to his business model. UCE-4180 also 22 represented himself as knowing the owner of a National Football League team, hereafter referred to as 23 "NFL Team A".

24 5. UCE-3357 was an undercover agent for the FBI who represented herself as an associate of 25 UCE-4180.

26 6. California Assembly Bill No. 1309 (hereafter "AB-1309"), entitled "Workers'
27 Compensation: Professional Athletes," was introduced in the California legislature on February 22, 28

1 opposed AB 1309. YEE told UCE-4180 that UCE-4180 should convey this information to the owner of 2 NFL Team A and the owner of NFL Team A should contact YEE with an offer to help YEE. When 3 UCE-4180 asked how much YEE's vote would cost, YEE responded, "Oh no ... we gotta drag it out,
4 man. We gotta juice this thing." YEE and JACKSON said they planned to talk to both the owners of,
5 and the players on, another professional sports team.

6 11. During the course of the conspiracy, YEE and JACKSON agreed that they would each make 7 contact with representatives of the owners and players on the other professional sports team and discuss 8 YEE's purported indecision about how he would be voting on AB 1309 when it was brought to a vote in 9 the Senate Labor and Industrial Relations Committee. They further agreed to present YEE's vote as 10 critical to whether AB 1309 passed or failed to pass. YEE and JACKSON agreed to see which side
11 would pay the most money and predicted YEE would end up voting in favor of AB 1309 because the 12 owners were most likely to give money to YEE.

13 12. During the course of the conspiracy, YEE and JACKSON agreed to, and did, seek 14 UCE-4180's assistance in arranging a meeting and/or telephone call with YEE and the owner of NFL
15 Team A. YEE and JACKSON advised UCE-4180 that during the meeting or telephone call, YEE would 16 only discuss the legislation with NFL Team A, and the subject of NFL Team A paying money to YEE
17 and/or making a contribution to YEE's Secretary of State campaign would be handled between 18 JACKSON and UCE-4180.

19 13. During a meeting between YEE, JACKSON, UCE-4180, and UCE-3357 on June 22, 2013,
20 UCE-4180 paid YEE $11,000 in connection with an introduction to a State Senator whom YEE
21 purported to have influence over medical marijuana legislation. During the meeting, YEE also 22 discussed his upcoming vote on AB 1309 and represented that he controlled two votes on the Senate
23 Labor and Industrial Relations Committee and that his vote was critical. When the subject of payment
24 of money by the owner of NFL Team A came up, YEE directed UCE-4180 to discuss that subject with 25 JACKSON.

26 14. During a subsequent meeting on June 22, 2013, JACKSON told UCE-4180 that YEE
27 was going "to be helpful" to the owner of NFL Team A, but wanted more money. When UCE-4180
28

1 conveyed an offer from the owner of NFL Team A to pay YEE $60,000 for YEE's favorable vote on AB
 2 1309, JACKSON told UCE-4180 that he would talk with YEE, but added, "I guarantee it is going to be
 3 fine." After learning the amount of money NFL Team A was purportedly willing to pay, JACKSON
 4 immediately contacted YEE by telephone and several hours later, JACKSON sent a text message to 5 UCE-4180 stating, "Hey [UCE-4180], where [sic] all good on our end ... kj." UCE 4180 did not pay
 6 any money to JACKSON or YEE.

7 15. On July 10, 2013, the California Senate Labor and Industrial Relations Committee held a 8 vote on AB 1309. YEE voted in favor of the bill's passage.

9 All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1951(a).

25 THE CONSPIRACY CHARGE

26 11. The allegations set forth in paragraphs 1 through 10 are hereby incorporated herein by 27 reference into each count of this indictment as if set forth fully herein.

12. Beginning on a date unknown to the Grand Jury, but no later than May 2011, and continuing through on or about March 2014, in the Northern District of California and elsewhere, the defendants, did knowingly and intentionally conspire with each other and with others, both known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit wire fraud, that is: having devised and intending to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the citizens of California of their right to the honest services of State Senator LELAND YEE through bribery, to transmit and cause to be transmitted by means of wire communication in interstate commerce writings, signs, signals, pictures, and sounds for the purpose of executing such scheme and artifice, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1343.

LELAND YEE and

THE SCHEME TO DEFRAUD

13. As set forth in greater detail below, beginning on a date unknown to the Grand Jury, but no later than May 2011, and continuing through on or about March 2014, defendants YEE and JACKSON devised and participated in a scheme to use defendant YEE's official position as a California State Senator to enrich themselves and obtain money for defendant YEE's San Francisco mayoral and California Secretary of State campaigns by soliciting and obtaining payments, including campaign donations, in exchange for YEE performing official acts for the benefit and at the request of those from whom money was solicited and obtained.

Bribe Involving Well Tech

14. During 2011, when YEE was running for mayor of San Francisco, JACKSON solicited UCE-4599 to make contributions to YEE's mayoral campaign, including soliciting UCE-4599 to make donations in excess of the $500 maximum individual donation amount set by law. UCE-4599 declined to make any contributions, but introduced JACKSON to his purported business associate, UCE-4773.

1 15. Beginning in or about September 2011, YEE and JACKSON solicited UCE-4773 to 2 make individual contributions to, and raise money for, YEE's San Francisco mayoral campaign.
3 JACKSON solicited UCE-4773 to make donations in excess of the $500 maximum individual donation
4 amount set by law. In response to solicitations for campaign donations by both YEE and JACKSON, on 5 or about October 11, 2011, UCE-4773 provided JACKSON with a $5,000 personal check made payable
6 to "Jackson Consultancy."

7 16. On or about January 18, 2012, after losing the San Francisco mayoral campaign, YEE
8 solicited UCE-4773 to make additional donations toward, and raise money for, the retirement of the debt
9 from YEE's mayoral campaign. YEE also asked UCE-4773 to donate to YEE's planned campaign for 10 California Secretary of State in the election to be held in 2014.

11 17. During the next several months, JACKSON also solicited UCE-4773 to make donations
12 in order to retire YEE's debt from the mayoral campaign. In response to the solicitations from YEE and 13 JACKSON, on or about April 27, 2012, UCE-4773 mailed a $5,000 personal check to JACKSON.

14 18. On or about June 26, 2012, UCE-4773 introduced YEE to two individuals acting in an 15 undercover capacity who were purportedly affiliated with UCE-4773's software consulting company
16 client, Well Tech. UCE-4773 explained to YEE that he was seeking to position Well Tech to compete
17 for grants and contracts, including public grants and contracts, in the State of California. YEE discussed
18 how the Secretary of State office might be of interest to UCE-4773 in furthering his goals for Well Tech.
19 During the same conversation, YEE acknowledged UCE-4773's "help with 5,000 and so on," and asked
20 for UCE-4773's "help with another 10."

21 19. During a meeting between UCE-4773, YEE, and JACKSON on or about September 4, 22 2012, YEE told UCE-4773 that he needed to retire the $32,000 in debt from the mayoral race, could not 23 announce for Secretary of State until the debt was reduced, and asked UCE-4773 to "do another 10."
24 UCE-4773 said that he would need YEE to make a telephone call or two on behalf of Well Tech to the 25 state health department. YEE agreed to make the call.

26 20. On or about September 19, 2012, UCE-4773 spoke again with YEE and told YEE that he 27
28

1 needed a letter from YEE to the state health department on behalf of Well Tech. YEE agreed to write a
2 letter and told UCE-4773 to send him a draft.

3 21. On or about September 24, 2012, JACKSON and UCE-4773 spoke on the telephone, and 4 JACKSON again asked UCE-4773 for money to clear up YEE's mayoral campaign debt. UCE-4773
5 told JACKSON that he would do so once he received the letter on behalf of Well Tech from YEE. In a
6 subsequent conversation, on September 26, 2012, JACKSON told UCE-4773 that YEE was more
7 comfortable making telephone calls than with putting things in writing.

8 22. On or about October 18, 2012, YEE and UCE-4773 spoke on the telephone and UCE-
9 4773 explained that an individual with the California Department of Public Health was considering Well
10 Tech for a grant. UCE-4773 asked YEE to participate in a telephone call with UCE-4773 and this 11 individual and vouch for Well Tech. YEE agreed to participate in the telephone call.

12 23. Later the same day, October 18, 2012, YEE participated in a conference call with UCE-
13 4773 and UCE-4138. UCE-4138 was an undercover FBI agent posing as a staff services manager with 14 the California Department of Public Health who was considering Well Tech for a state grant. During the 15 call, YEE expressed his familiarity with and support for Well Tech.

16 24. On or about November 19, 2012, UCE-4599 met with JACKSON at a restaurant in San 17 Francisco and paid JACKSON $10,000 cash on behalf of UCE-4773. UCE-4599 asked about the letter
18 from YEE on behalf of Well Tech that was still outstanding. JACKSON said the letter would be 19 forthcoming.

20 25. On or about November 23, 2012, YEE had a conversation with a member of his State
21 Senate staff about the $10,000 that had been received by the campaign from UCE-4773.

22 26. On or about January 13, 2013, JACKSON sent to UCE-4773 a letter dated January 11,
23 2013 on the California State Senate letterhead of "Senator Leland Y. Yee, Ph.D., Eighth Senate
24 District." The letter, which appeared to be signed by YEE, was addressed to Well Tech and expressed 25 YEE's support for Well Tech's expansion to California.

26 Bribes Involving a State Senate Proclamation for the Chee Kung Tong

27 27. During the November 19, 2012 meeting when UCE-4599 paid JACKSON the $10,000
28

1 campaign donation from UCE-4773, UCE-4599 and JACKSON discussed YEE's remaining mayoral
2 campaign debt of $5,000. UCE-4599 asked JACKSON if he knew anyone who could assist CHOW in
3 getting CHOW's ankle monitoring device removed. JACKSON said he would ask YEE. UCE-4599
4 told JACKSON that he would pay off the remainder of the debt if YEE would assist CHOW.

5 28. JACKSON and YEE subsequently discussed UCE-4599's request and offer. YEE
6 discussed his knowledge of CHOW's criminal reputation and told JACKSON that as much as he wanted
7 the $5,000, he could not agree to UCE-4599's request.

8 29. JACKSON introduced YEE to UCE-4599 at a restaurant in San Francisco on or about 9 January 22, 2013. UCE-4599 and YEE discussed CHOW and CHOW's criminal reputation. UCE-4599
10 asked YEE instead to provide an official proclamation to the Chee Kung Tong at an upcoming 11 celebration of the Chee Kung Tong's anniversary. YEE agreed to the request.

12 30. On or about February 14, 2013, JACKSON told UCE-4599 that YEE would be doing the 13 proclamation for the Chee Kung Tong. UCE-4599 told JACKSON that he would provide YEE a check 14 at the celebration or shortly thereafter.

15 31. On or about March 29, 2013, a staff member from one of YEE's district offices appeared
16 at the Chee Kung Tong anniversary celebration dinner in San Francisco and presented a framed 17 proclamation on California State Senate letterhead to the Chee Kung Tong. The staffer said she was 18 officially presenting the proclamation from Senator YEE.

19 32. On or about May 1, 2013, JACKSON sent a text message to UCE-4599 telling him to 20 make his check out to "Leland Yee. For Secretary of State."

21 33. On or about May 6, 2013, UCE-4599 provided JACKSON with a $5,000 check made 22 payable to "Leland Yee Secretary of State." During a phone conversation with UCE-4599 on or about 23 May 9, 2013, YEE thanked UCE-4599 for his donation.

24 34. During a telephone conversation between YEE and JACKSON on or about July 4, 2013,
25 YEE expressed his expectation that UCE-4599 would provide more money to the Secretary of State 26 campaign.

27 35. On or about July 11, 2013, UCE-4599 provided JACKSON with a $1,800 check made 28

1 payable to "Leland Yee Secretary of State."

2 Bribes Involving Medical Marijuana Legislation

3 36. In the spring of 2013, UCE-4180 met YEE and JACKSON and discussed his interest in 4 statewide legislation in California that would regularize the laws pertaining to medical marijuana. UCE-
5 4180 discussed particular provisions he wanted to see in statewide legislation that were consistent with 6 UCE-4180's business model. During these discussions, UCE-4180 also told YEE and JACKSON that
7 he would be willing to make donations to YEE's Secretary of State campaign in exchange for YEE's
8 efforts on UCE-4180's behalf.

9 37. On or about April 24, 2013, UCE-4180 told JACKSON that he wanted to make a small 10 donation to YEE's Secretary of State campaign to show good faith. The next day, April 25, 2013,
11 JACKSON sent a text message to UCE-4180 providing the account information for the Jackson
12 Consultancy bank account.

13 38. On or about April 29, 2013, UCE-4180 made a direct cash deposit of $3,000 to 14 JACKSON's bank account.

15 39. In May 2013, CHS #11, a confidential human source working in an undercover capacity
16 for the FBI, asked YEE to contact another State Senator, hereafter referred to as State Senator 1, to 17 express support for medical marijuana legislation that would include features that would be helpful to 18 UCE-4180. CHS #11 offered to make a campaign donation in exchange for the contact.

19 40. During a subsequent telephone conversation between YEE and JACKSON, YEE told 20 JACKSON that he could make the call to State Senator 1. YEE instructed JACKSON to get campaign
21 donations from UCE-4180 and CHS #11.

22 41. During a meeting between YEE, JACKSON, UCE-4180, and others at a restaurant in 23 San Francisco on May 17, 2013, UCE-4180 reiterated the request that YEE contact State Senator 1.
24 YEE stated that he was not interested in making money, but wanted his friends to benefit from his work.
25 UCE-4180 gave YEE an envelope containing $5,000 in cash.

1 42. On May 20, 2013, UCE-4180 spoke on the telephone with JACKSON and YEE, and 2 YEE provided UCE-4180 with an update on the status of two bills pertaining to medical marijuana that 3 were pending in the state legislature.

4 43. On June 20, 2013, in Sacramento, California, YEE introduced UCE-4180 to State
5 Senator 1 at a meeting also attended by JACKSON. YEE explained UCE-4180's interest in certain 6 provisions of statewide medical marijuana legislation and expressed support for the issue of medical
7 marijuana.

8 44. On June 22, 2013, YEE and JACKSON met with UCE-4180 in a hotel room in San 9 Francisco. UCE-4180 delivered an envelope containing $11,000 cash and said that it was for the 10 meeting with State Senator 1. Before leaving the room, YEE prompted JACKSON to pick up the 11 envelope and take it with them.

12 45. During a conversation between YEE and JACKSON on July 15, 2013, YEE complained 13 to JACKSON about the small amount of money received from UCE-4180 "for all we've done," and 14 mentioned having set up the meeting for UCE-4180 with State Senator 1.

15 46. When JACKSON had a follow-up telephone conversation with UCE-4180 and asked for 16 more money, UCE-4180 expressed concern that he had not received much for his money thus far.
